Call to Worship – Unison Prayer

Blessed Lord, we draw near to your cross, the sign and means of our salvation.

Help us to understand its terrible glory and beautiful challenge, and to take hold of it.

We turn our hearts to you, letting go of everything that is not fit for your kingdom and pray that you renew in us a desire to be transformed by your gracious love.

We devote ourselves to ways of living that connect us to your presence, to each other, and to those around us who long for good news.

By the power of your Holy Spirit, make us true disciples, build us into a vital and holy church, and lead us through death and resurrection into eternal and abundant life.

Jesus, we ask these things to the glory, and in the power, of your precious name.

Amen.
