God of all things, all peoples, all times, and all places, we give You thanks for the goodness that we receive, even from those whom we would not count as friends. We pray for Your blessings, not only for ourselves, and for those we love, but for all who love You as we do. And gracious God, we pray Your blessing on those who do not love You or us, yes, even our enemies, that by Your grace they may come to know love.

We dedicate ourselves to being a means of Your love in the world, that love would be multiplied, to Your eternal glory. We pray these things in the name of the one who revealed Your love in fullness, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

We have new prayer cards in the pews, to provide options. As a reminder, please be sure that if you are lifting up someone not present, that you have their explicit permission to do so, whether we’re streaming or not. In this way, we can continue to be in prayer for each other, and faithful to our identity as a praying church.
